The Venice Academy of Human Rights is a centre of excellence for human rights education, research and debate. It forms part of the European Inter-University Centre for Human Rights and Democratisation which is a leading institution for research and education in Europe. The mission of the Venice Academy is to provide a forum for emerging ideas, practices and policy options in human rights research, education and training. The Academy hosts distinguished experts to participate in critical and useful research, innovation and exchange of current knowledge. It is an interdisciplinary thematic programme open to academics, practitioners and Ph.D./J.S.D. students from all over the world who have an advanced knowledge of human rights. Participants attend morning lectures, afternoon seminars and workshops.
