

Eine Veranstaltung des
Exzellenzclusters “Die Herausbildung normativer Ordnungen” der Goethe-Universität Frankfurt am Main

Verantwortlich:

Prof. Dr. Dr. Matthias Lutz-Bachmann

Prof. Dr. Thomas M. Schmidt

Dr. Uchenna Okeja

Anmeldung unter:

johannsen@em.uni-frankfurt.de sowie uchenna.okeja@gmail.com

Tel. 069-798-32776

NORMATIVE ORDERS

Exzellenzcluster an der Goethe-Universität Frankfurt am Main

Cosmopolitanism, Human Rights and Religion in Postsecular Societies

International Conference
Goethe-Universität Frankfurt am Main

May 31 - June 1, 2013

Campus Westend
Building of the Cluster of Excellence
Room 5.01

Building 10 – Cluster of Excellence

Friday, May 31

9.00-9.15

Matthias Lutz-Bachmann/Thomas M. Schmidt
Opening Remarks

9.15-10.15

William J. Talbott, Seattle
Cosmopolitanism, Human Rights, and the Next Great Religious Awakening

10.15-11.15

Amos Nascimento, Tacoma
From Religious Worldviews to Global Human Rights Discourses: Articulating the postconventional, postmetaphysical, postnational and postsecular

11.30-12.30

Michael A. Rosenthal, Seattle
Spinoza on Circumcision and Ceremonies: Religion in Cosmopolitan Societies

Lunch

14.00-15.00

Jon Bowman, St. Louis
The Axial Age and the Postsecular: Jaspers, Habermas, and Critics

15.00-16.00

Gregg D. Miller, Seattle
Postmetaphysical?

16.30-17.30

José Casanova, Washington

19.00 Dinner Reception

Saturday, June 1

9.00-10.00

Uchenna Okeja, Frankfurt
Visions of the post-secular in a postcolonial dream

10.00-11.00

Timothy Nwala, Abuja
The Postcolonial Secular State and its Religions: The Example of Nigeria

11.30-12.30

Thaddeus Metz, Johannesburg
The Secular State and its Traditional Religions: The Case of Courts in South Africa

Lunch

14.00-15.00

Mahmoud Bassiouni, Frankfurt
Why the secular can't ignore the religious and vice versa: an Islamic perspective

15.00-16.00

Jonathan Warren, Seattle
Human Rights, and Religion in a Post-Secular Asia

16.30-17.30

Neera Chandoke, New Delhi
Secularism: The Life and Times of an Unsettled Concept in India

18.00 Final Debate

Dinner