

“Global Tax Justice”
Humboldt University Berlin, IRITHESys
Room 2249a, Unter den Linden 6, 10099 Berlin

Thursday, January 28th

- 14:00 Hillel Steiner (University of Manchester)
“Global tax justice and the global fund”
Comment by Valentin Beck (Free University Berlin)
- 15:10 Coffee Break
- 15:40 Chris Armstrong (University of Southampton)
“Global justice and natural resource taxation”
Comment by Mirjam Müller (Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin)
- 16:50 Eszter Kollar (Goethe University Frankfurt)
“Emigration tax, the ownership of talents and fair terms of cooperation”
Comment by Jan Brezger (Free University Berlin)
- 18:00 Wine Reception

Friday, January 29th

- 09:00 Peter Dietsch (Université de Montréal)
“From taxes to trade – what makes an international economic level-playing field?”
Comment by Henning Hahn (University of Kassel/Free University Berlin)
- 10:10 Coffee Break
- 10:40 Thomas Rixen (University of Bamberg)
“A proposal for institutional reform of global tax governance”
Comment by Johannes Himmelreich (Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin)
- 11:50 Laurens van Appeldoorn (Leiden University)
“Towards a theory of fiscal jurisdiction”
Comment by Daniel Jacob (Free University Berlin)
- 13:00 Lunch Break
- 14:30 Juri Viehoff (University of Zurich)
“Greasing the wheels of tax injustice? Complicity and responsibility in the global tax planning industry”
Comment by Tamara Jugov (Free University Berlin)
- 15:40 Jens van ‘t Klooster (University of Cambridge)
“Taxation and spending vs. unconventional monetary policy”
Comment by Felix Koch (Free University Berlin)

Organizers: Gabriel Wollner (Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin) and Andreas Cassee (Free University Berlin)

Participants are asked to register with Lisa Frach (frachliq@hu-berlin.de)