

The Grade Centre Normative Orders is seeking to appoint

2 postdoctoral positions (100%, TV-G-U 13)

in the area of political theory/political philosophy starting on May 15th 2018 for a three year period. The positions do have their own research budgets.

Applicants are required to have completed all their PhD requirements (including exams) by the beginning of their contract and should have proven potential to conduct and publish research at an international level.

Prerequisites for a successful application are an outstanding dissertation and the outline of a relevant research project on a topic relevant for the understanding and evaluation of current transformations and challenges of normative orders such as the future of democracy or questions of transnational justice.

Please send your application in English in one document (a 2-3 page research project, CV, writing sample of preferably not more than 7,000 words [can be an excerpt], and two letters of reference [and no more than two]) to the Director of the Centre, Professor Rainer Forst (sekretariat.forst@soz.uni-frankfurt.de). The two letters of reference may also be sent directly from the referees.

Please send your written application (preferably in electronic form) by April 10th, 2018 to the office of Prof. Dr. Rainer Forst, Goethe University, Cluster of Excellence “The Formation of Normative Orders”, attn: Ms. Sonja Sickert, Max-Horkheimer-Strasse 2, 60629 Frankfurt am Main.

Goethe University is committed to increasing the proportion of female scientific staff and therefore encourages women particularly to apply. In 2015, Goethe University was consecutively certified as “family-friendly university” for the fourth time. Employees will be supported in their efforts to combine their professional life with family duties, re-entry after parental leave will be facilitated. Where qualifications are equal, preference will be given to people with disabilities according to the valid legal provisions. For the limitation of the contracts of scientific employees the regulations of the Wissenschaftszeitvertragsgesetzes are applicable in connection with the Hessische Hochschulgesetz.